Court Warns About Lanes

Fire lanes are for fire fighting equipment, states the traffic court, and the students should remember their obligation regarding them.

The lanes pointed out were the ones leading to the Union and to Roberta Hall. These lanes are the only access to the respective buildings. If cars are parked in them and fire does break out, the fire trucks would be unable to reach the buildings.

Consequently, the student court warns, "Please keep this in mind and remember! If you are parked in a fire lane (marked by yellow paint) you are gambling with fire, and taking a chance on getting a parking ticket."

Both Parties Agree on Debate

The young Democrats, sponsored by Mr. Floyd Barrows, and the young Republicans, sponsored by Dr. B. G. Angman, have created a stir in the political world. The young Democrats state that they are happy that the young Republicans accept the challenge put forth verbally several weeks ago by Mr. Barrows to Dr. Angman to engage in a debate over current controversial issues.

Definite debate plans have not yet been made due to homecoming and other activities. The debate will probably be held after Thanksgiving.

The Democrats will have a meeting on November 8 for social and election activities. Ted Jamison is acting representative for the group.

Young Republicans To Discuss TV Debates

The McCarthy-Goldwater TV debate, recorded, will be the program and topic of discussion at the Young Republican club meeting, Monday, November 6.

The debate between Eugene McCarthy, liberal Senator from Minnesota, and Barry Goldwater, far-right Arizona Senator, concerns the desirability of big government.

According to Dr. B. G. Angman, sponsor, all interested students are invited to the 4:00 meeting in CH 313. John Miller is president of the club.

Book Club To Be Held November 13

Poetry by Archibald MacLeish and Phyllis McGinley will be featured at the November 13 meeting of the Book Club.

The program is to be given by Rose Ann Gard and Jeanie Morris.

The 7 p.m. meeting is to be held in the Gold Room of the Union and will include both reading and criticism of the works. Linda Carolyn Jones was elected vice-president at the last meeting of the group.

Capacity Crowd Watches As New Record Is Made

A capacity crowd watched as the Gamma Sigma Sigma-Alpha Phi Omega team trampled the Phi Lambda Chi team, 635-220, in the first campus bowl contest held October 24.

The GSS-APO team, consisting of Richard Smith, captain, Phil Stone, Ruth Ann Elliott, and Julia Henry, scored the highest number of points in the history of the competition on this campus.

On the losing team were Stan VanderWerf, captain, Ron Guthrey, Ken Sands, and Nuretin Uzunoglu.

Man to attractive date: "Tell me your dreams, your hopes, your dimensions."

Variety Show Leads Off Homecoming Events

The 1961 Homecoming whirl of events will begin Thursday, November 2, with the Variety Show scheduled for 7:30 that evening. The highlight of the evening will be the crowning of the Queen. A pep rally will follow.

College Fees To Go Higher

The price of education is going up! This was one of the changes and improvements made at the Board of Regents meeting, Oct. 24.

Effective Sept. 1962, college fees will be $65 per semester, and board and room will be $275 a semester. Laboratory fees will be discontinued.

Good news for the students was announced, however, in that present plans call for work to start on campus roads next spring. A contract has been authorized for the plans and specifications of the project.

A new parking lot was also authorized at the meeting. The lot is to be located north and west of the present Quadrangle. Space for 250 cars is planned.

Other business discussed concerned facilities for more seating capacity in Lamkin Gymnasium and reroofing of the Administration building.

The night judging of house decorations is slated for 7:00 p.m. Friday, November 3. The Variety Show will take place at 8:00 p.m. the same evening, with a presentation of the Homecoming Queen at 10:00 p.m.

The pre-judging of floats will be at 8:15 Saturday morning. The PEM Club Coffee Hour will be held at Miss Magill's home at 8:30. The "M" Club Breakfast will be at 9:00 in the Union dining hall. The house decorations will have their day judging at 9:00, and the Homecoming Parade will begin at 10:00.

A mass presentation of bands will take place at 1:40 and the 1961 Homecoming Queen will be presented to the crowd immediately before the Homecoming Game with Springfield.

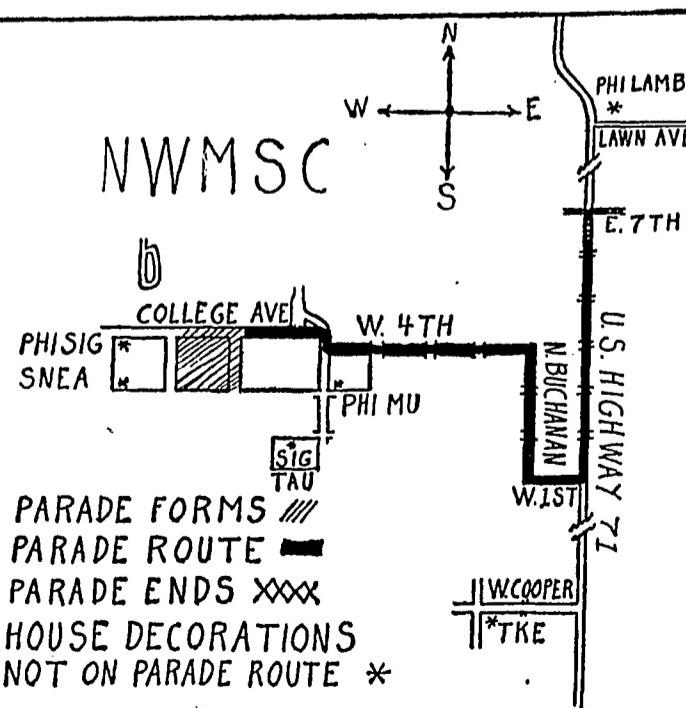

The awards given to the winning high school marching bands will be made during half-time.

Several after-game coffees will be held. One will be held in the Union Lounge. The Tekes will have a coffee at 4:00 at their fraternity house. The Kappa Omicron Phi coffee will be held in the Home Economics Department.

The Delta Zeta Founder's Day Banquet will be held at Armstrong's Restaurant, and the Tri Sigma's Salad Bar will be at the Christian Church. The Horace Mann Alumni Banquet will be in the Horace Mann Lunchroom, and the Phi Sig Alumni Banquet will be held at St. Mary's Catholic Church.

The Sig Tau's Buffet Dinner will be in the Legion Hall, and the Alpha Sigma Alpha Founder's Day Banquet will be at Armstrong's Restaurant.

Culmination of the three days of activity will be the Homecoming Dance with Warren Durrett and his orchestra in the Lamkin Gymnasium. Durrett should feel right at home among the homecoming crowd. A one time student of NWMSC, he should be remembered by many people as the leader of the "Tivoli Ambassadors". In the early forties Durrett and his band, composed mostly of students, played each Sunday evening at the Tivoli Theatre.

THE COLLEGE OATH

"We will never bring disgrace to this, our College, by any act of cowardice or dishonesty. We will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the College. We will revere and obey the College laws and do our best to incite a like respect and reverence in others. We will transmit this College to those who come after us; greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

Message From Pres. Merrigan

NWMSC is growing and may be suffering from some slight growing pains. With the increase in the enrollment, there is also a noticeable increase in the number of people who have not adjusted themselves to acting as a college student should.

A very good example of this lack of adjustment is the vulgar language sometimes heard in the cafeteria. Also, the "crashing" of the cafeteria lines is becoming a problem. We should be able to discipline ourselves on such matters, not rely on supervision to control our every action.

There IS a regulation concerning the line crashing, this being: "if a "crasher" is reported to the Dean of Students' office, the person shall be brought before the Student-Faculty Discipline Committee and penalized accordingly.

It will not benefit the student body as a whole by "covering" for a fellow student. Grumbling to oneself about a line crasher is useless. If you do not like line crashing, do something about it, by reporting to the Dean of Students' office.

Remember, since this college is getting too large for a few people to discipline us all, we must discipline ourselves in matters such as line crashing, language, length of telephone calls, etc. By doing this, I'm sure the student body will be much happier and NWMSC will be a better place to get a "college" college education.

What Are 'Barbs'?

For those people who think (1) that the MISSOURIAN is trying to "throw rocks" at the ISO (2), we would like to explain what 'barbs' are. This is also a refresher course for those who flunked Humanities. (3)

To understand the word you must try to associate it. (You know, the free association bit). Let's think. It could stand for Barbara, barbed wire, Barbary ape, or barber. (4) No, it is none of these—you flunk again.

To find the answer you must look into the past—way back. (5) When you retrospect far enough and reach ancient Greece, STOP. Now is it coming any more lucid? What did the Greeks call the non-Greeks? Eureka! (translation; I have found it!) (6) The non-Greeks were known as barbarians, and from that we have come up with the abbreviation, 'barbs'. (7)

So you see, all we mean (8) when we print the word 'barbs' in reference to the independent group is that they are non-Greeks. It also makes a nice word for a headline. Is that so bad?

Footnotes

1. Comparatively few. We refuse to carry free advertising at this point.
2. Not to be confused with ISA Lake in Yellowstone National Park.
3. cf catalog statement III. 8.a.(1) (b) under monadism.
4. Ask Mr. Peel to tell the fox hunting bit.
5. A professor is a person who has to back up two thousand years to get into a subject.
6. More correctly: Heureka, third person singular, imperative of an irregular strong verb redundant in the omega contraction and the electra contraflexion. Definitely not measurable, the it is implied or supplied gratuitously.
7. Standard campus slang for up to ten years; get with it, daddy-o.
8. Potrobie.

Ratio Favors Campus Co-ed

Attention all women! Did you know that the enrollment of NWMSC shows the odds to be one female to every one and one-half male?

Very few of the 906 girls wouldn't agree that this is a pretty good average. Just for a point of reference, there are 1341 men now enrolled.

26 States

Although the college lacks three of having 2,250; it makes up for it by its far-flung interests. Students attend here from 26 states which are as far west as California, and as far east as Maryland or North Carolina; as far south as Texas, and as far north as Michigan.

There are even collegiates from Hawaii, but registration isn't limited to the United States, six foreign countries are represented. They are the Canal Zone, China, Germany, Iran, Turkey, and Uruguay.

The information as to the exact number of students from each state or country is withheld as confidential. (Could this be because Iowans outnumber Missourians as the men outnumber the women.)

Housing Projects Include Shelters

The campus is rapidly achieving a new look as the latest building projects near completion.

These new buildings are expected to improve the housing problem as much as 50%.

Hudson Hall, the new women's building, will accommodate 264.

The south and east wings of the new quads, Richardson and Cook Hall, will provide housing for 266 men.

The new buildings are to be equipped with the latest safety additive, a fallout shelter.

Info Please On News Copy

What makes a News story? In basic journalism, the first lesson is to include the five questions; who, what, when where, and why. ('How' comes later in an advanced course.)

To include the five facts in a news story, the writer must have the information. If the reporter goes out to cover a story, he is responsible for getting a "full scoop." But, if the information is brought into the office by a person other than the staff, that person is responsible for providing all necessary information to be included in the article.

The five basic questions are the most difficult information to obtain. The MISSOURIAN will try its best to include all the data. We are not the only one capable of "goofing" however. Recently an announcement was read in all classes which contained all the required information; EXCEPT the hour that the function was slated.

So, if you have an event or a function that you want publicized, try to include all five answers in your news release. And when it comes to time, include the day of the month, day of the week, and the hour of the day. IT MAKES the newsman's job much easier & much more satisfactory.

Inquiring Photographer

QUESTION: What is your opinion of men's manners on campus, and what is your biggest complaint about their manners?

Christi Johnston, freshman, Maryville, Mo.

"No complaints."

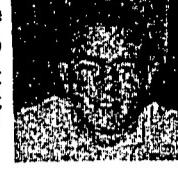

Janie Beavers, freshman, Cameron, Mo.

QUESTION: What do you dislike most about the girls on campus—manners, dress, attitude, etc.

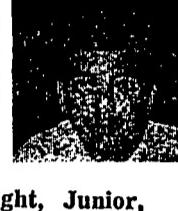

Roger Anderson, Senior, Hopkins, Missouri

"I don't like girls who don't speak and I don't like the twist."

Don Vasos, Junior, Carroll, Iowa

"I dislike a girl with a cigarette dangling from her mouth."

Lowell Wright, Junior, Bolckow, Missouri

"I dislike this changing of hair color. I like it natural a lot better."

Jerry Lucht, Sophomore, Coon Rapids, Iowa

"I think most of the girls on campus are well mannered and are, on the necessary occasions, well dressed. The thing I dislike is they don't attend dances, and social affairs on weekends."

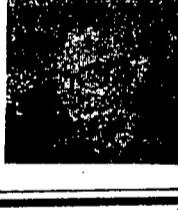

John Duggins, Senior, St. Joseph, Missouri

"They stay to themselves too much."

Larry Kulisek, Senior, Council Bluffs, Iowa

"I've never been asked to a Harvest Moon Dance in four years."

"For the Love of Mike"

A monument of marble stands to the right of the drive as one approaches the turn-about at the east entrance of the Administration building. This monument was erected in honor of a tramp dog that came to this campus one day, liked it and decided to stay.

The students and faculty grew to love the little grayish dog christened Mike.

When darkness fell on the campus, Mike found it a very lonesome place, so he made calls at the homes of the faculty members. He would visit first at one place and then another, returning to the homes where he liked his bed and board.

Mike was also a loyal sports fan, and he attended every home game. He proudly wore his green and white blanket with its "M" on either side.

Sometimes Mike would attend classes, most frequently on cold blustery days. His favorite seat was under the instructor's desk.

Mike also went on many field trips, sometimes by himself and often with classes. On May 17, 1917, he joined an agriculture class that was spraying the trees with arsenate of lead. Mike was not very good in chemistry, and he tried to quench his thirst with it. The students and the veterinary could do nothing to save the life of the college pet.

A small box with the phrase "For the Love of Mike" soon appeared in the Administration building. With the money collected, the students erected the monument that marks the spot where Mike is buried. The monument bears this phrase:

MIKE

To the Memory of Our Dog
Died May 15, 1917

Since that day, dogs have come and gone on campus, but none other than Mike has had the distinction of being known as The College Dog.

Kappa Delta Pi Holds Language Panel

"Foreign language in the Elementary School" was the topic for discussion at the Kappa Delta Pi meeting. It was held October 25 in the Upper Lakeview room of the union.

Members of the panel leading the discussion were Carol Lininger, Ann Seymour, Janet Hansen, Ann Hill, and Karen Mast.

Other business on the agenda included the consideration of names for membership in Kappa Delta Pi and a discussion on campus projects.

Many Rewards Gained from Organizations

Membership in a professional organization has many assets, both to the individual and the group.

One of the essential characteristics of a professional organization is to help its members increase their knowledge and proficiency in their chosen area.

Belonging to such an organization, the student has the opportunity to develop lasting friendships with people of his interests.

Also, there is the possibility that a person's record will be looked upon favorably if he is and has been a member of his professional group. As Miss Carol Clemens, sponsor of Pi Omega Pi, said, "It's an honor to one's record."

In addition to the importance of the organization to its members, it is a part of the college curriculum; and any group that has high scholastic standards and ideals adds to the prestige and value of the school.

Some of the honorary societies and organizations on this campus are: Alpha Psi Omega, honorary dramatics fraternity; Kappa Delta Pi, honorary education society.

Kappa Omicron Pi, home economics fraternity; Kappa Pi, National Honor Society in fine arts; Pi Kappa Delta, national honorary society for future teachers in the business area; and Sigma Tau Delta, national honorary society for writers.

Miss McMenamin Heads New TGA

Beverly McMenamin was elected president of the newly organized Town Girl's Association at their Oct. 25 meeting.

The need for such an organization was stressed by Mrs. L. G. Bladt, since so many girls live in approved off-campus housing.

Other officers elected were Norma Fletchall, vice-pres.; Judy Fletchall, sec.; and Linda Raye, treas. Mrs. Doris Pierce is the TGA sponsor.

G.S.S. Has Busy Fall

Gamma Sigma Sigma has been busy this fall with several worthy projects.

Some of their projects are selling all-school directories, helping with freshman orientation, and helping with the taking of Tower pictures. A babysitting program has again been adopted as well as the helping with campus tours for visitors to the campus.

GSS is planning to put mending kits in all women's powder rooms. This is a new project and will be completed by Homecoming.

The new pledges this fall are Sharon Burton, Sarah Ferguson, Pat Gillespie, Carolyn Heidtbrink, Linda Kensinger.

Sue Miller, Marian Murphy, Anna Rehm, Joanne Rorebeck, Carolyn Rowe, Charlotte Stamper, and Edwina Starks. Their pledge mother is Gayle Houk.

Sig Tau's Hold Mixer

Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity was host to the Phi Mu's at a mixer held at the fraternity house, Oct. 24.

Guests were Miss Laura Jackson, Phi Mu sponsor, and Mrs. Keller, Sig Tau house mother.

Refreshments were served and the groups were entertained by Scott Marriott and Harold Gentry on electric guitars.

Work on Religion Week

Plans are now being made for the twenty-fourth annual Religious Emphasis Week to be held on campus, March 11-15, 1962.

There will be a meeting Wednesday, November 8, at 4 p.m. in room 213 of Colden Hall. Important announcements pertaining to Religious Emphasis Week will be made. All who are interested in helping are urged to attend the meeting.

Religious Emphasis Week is sponsored by the Newman Club and the Student Christian Association.

Phi Sig's Entertain

Phi Sigma Epsilon hosted Sigma Sigma Sigma at an informal house party held in the PSE house, October 24. Guests were Neva Ross and the Phi Sigma housemother, Mrs. Aldrich.

Halloween Party

Held by SNEA

SNEA held its annual Halloween party Oct. 25, at 7 p.m. in the Horace Mann cafeteria.

The hour-long party was highlighted by recreation under the direction of Linda Potter. Joanne Rorebeck won a prize in a seasonal contest which was held.

Refreshments consisted of cookies and cocoa served by Dixie Gomel and Linda Pugh.

Blue Key Honors Tapped Members

Blue Key held its regular meeting Sunday evening, October 29, at Armstrong's restaurant. The newly tapped members present were Earl Boyd, Richard Smith, Bob Cobb, J. C. Combs, and Lee Weir.

Others present as guests were Mrs. Shela Moss, Thelma Gerdes, Sue Crone, Kay Anderson, Fannie Kavanaugh, and Carol Foje.

Colhecon Hears About 50th State

Jean Kobashigawa, freshman from Kekaha, Hawaii, was the guest speaker at the Oct. 25 meeting of Colhecon. Speaking on the 50th state, Miss Kobashigawa showed slides, modeled mumus and displayed shell jewelry. The theme was, "United Nations."

Officers for the home economics organization are: Charlotte DeShon, Pres.; Donna Larson, vice-pres.; Pat Tryon, sec.; Phyllis Leu, treas.; and Norma Hunsicker, reporter.

THE STROLLER

This week The Stroller has noticed an abundance of blood-shot eyes, scratched hands, and droopy looks on students. . . . Thank heaven that Homecoming is not too far off! (Johnson and Johnson could make a fortune on first-aid supplies if they were on the scene!).

Even though there are these noticeable signs, everyone seems to be taking the work well. This morning marks the beginning of campaigning for queen, and students will be trying to be on their best behavior.

The initiative of students (this fact sometimes seems to be overlooked by the faculty) is shown in many ways, and at this time of year, this quality is at its peak. On visits to the areas where work is being done on floats, The Stroller has seen some spectacular things! (The competition is going to be real keen.)

Materialism

SPEAKING of initiative, various organizations are always "cooking up," sometimes literally (bake sales, candy sales), projects to make a few coins for their treasures. However, two freshman girls are taking advantage of the "above-the-knee" length skirts and are selling their services as seamstresses to other coeds. Two athletes make a little extra cash by running a laundry route in the men's dormitories. (This route sometimes gets detoured, however, as can be testified by the guy who has worn the same shirt for a week!)

One clothes-conscious senior was heard to remark that she has some ironing in her room that has been neglected since the first week of school. Most of us don't have this problem—mainly because we don't have that many outfits. . . . It has been a refreshing lift to see so many guys dressed to the hilt, mildly speaking (suits and ties), during the past few weeks. This is probably due to fraternity and M-Club demands, but many of the "fairer sex" have been heard to remark at how "sharp" the previous "dull blades" have been appearing. (The Stroller cannot be put into this category because he is still the same old mysterious guy.)

FAR-REACHING thought. . . . Just 22 days until Thanksgiving! Everyone will journey home, stuff themselves, and come back to campus with a satisfied smile. (The gals, though, will probably look into the frequently consulted mirrors just once, see those extra pounds showing, step back, give a salute, and say goodbye to suppers.) The guys will no doubt chalk it up as "just one of those things."

NEW club on campus. . . . Sure happy it's Thursday!!

They're Talking About . . .

Fire drills and people who answer their buzzers during them. . . . Campuses and Confessions. . . . The rigged beauty contest at Main and First. . . . The girl who wouldn't accept a six-pack because she didn't smoke. . . . Barbs. . . . Raids at the local C.C. . . . Popcorn parties. . . . The town bell that wouldn't stop ringing. . . . The Mad Bomber in Wilson Hall. . . . "M" Club initiations. . . . The quad that is falling apart. . . . The guy who wears the wild ties. . . . The Phi Sig running for Tower Queen. . . . The paper boy who sings hymns on Monday morning. . . . The foiled Halloween plot to tip over the Ad. building. . . . The "little" boy who wore the "little" girl's red scarf in the Den. . . .

Courses by Mail Provide 400 Hours

Trends in the NWMSC correspondence program were released by Mrs. James Gregory of the Field Service Office.

Women outnumber men three to one in enrollments for correspondence courses, according to Mrs. Gregory. Total enrollments for 1960-61 were 410 with women taking 314 of these courses and men taking the remaining 96 courses.

Education courses are the most popular among the students who take courses by correspondence. Education 158 and Education 120 are probably the two most popular courses taken, Mrs. Gregory stated.

Correspondence courses offer a valuable opportunity for students to gain needed semester hours credits. During academic 1960-61, over 400 semester hours credit were granted as the result of nearly 200 correspondence courses.

Over 40 different courses in 11 departments are now offered by correspondence. The maximum credit hours accepted toward any degree is 30.0 hours. In addition to this limitation, the last ten hours of work toward a degree must be done in residence.

Further information may be obtained at the Field Service Office, or by reference to the Northwest Missouri State College Bulletin.

The Students' Soapbox

Dear Sir,

I read in last week's Missourian about the independents' organization and some of their purposes in organizing. Interesting. Sounds good. Now don't get me wrong. I'm not a member of this I. S. O. nor am I a Greek. Just an interested student who likes to know what's going on.

Now the independents say that they offer "organization, activity, and social life without the restrictions and financial obligations of a sorority or fraternity." Interesting. But just what are the restrictions of a fraternity? How are their objectives different from the independents; or, for that matter, how do they differ from one another? How do the Greeks represent the unaffiliated student?

This issue interests me as I think it does many other students. What we need are active participation and discussion of views by a gung-ho student body to make the Student Senate a more effective governing body.

But what about the Greeks? Independents have taken their knocks, but what do the Greeks, the leaders of the Student Government Association, have to say. I've never heard their side of the story.

Dear Greeks,
Please reply.

An inquisitive student

It seems as if some students are often careless when thinking of their fellow students. If they weren't careless, they would realize that the "Golden Rule" applies to the usage of books also. How often have you heard this comment? "The book was listed, but it was nowhere to be found." Because of our carelessness, we cost the library much in time and money. The library rules are few and simple. Let's look at these rules again.

1. Within the stacks, don't put a book back on the shelves. It is possible to misplace it among other books.
2. Don't take books from the stacks without checking them out.
3. Above all, don't leave books lying around so that they get misplaced or lost.

How much nicer it would be if all of us abided by these rules. It would save time not only for the librarians and other students, but for ourselves as well. So save time and be courteous.

SCA Entertains Exchange Students

Exchange students were honored at the SCA banquet, October 19.

Maria Carolina Bellagamba, Uruguay; Christa Newerla, Germany; Yuan (Jim) Wu, Hong Kong; Allan Yuan, Free China; Abby Hooshanigan and Mohammed Mazaheri, Tehran, Iran; were NWMSC students attending.

Barbara Leonard, missionary to the Philippines, and Premala Edwards, India, also attended the banquet held in the Lakeview Room of the Union.

Joanne Swope, President, introduced the guest minister, Reverend Robert Ceperley of the First Presbyterian Church, and the sponsors, Dr. Irene Mueller and Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Dreps.

Sig Tau's Install Intercom System

Members of Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity recently installed a multi-speaker intercommunication system in their house, according to Bill Needles, chapter president.

The system, which features two-way communication between all rooms in the house and a central console, is part of a long-range house improvement program.

Tau Pledge Officers

Sigma Tau Gamma pledges elected officers at their meeting, Tuesday, Oct. 10.

The following pledges were elected: Harold Gentry, pres.; Scott Marriott, vice-pres.; and David Purtell, sec.-treas.

'Two' Are Busiest On MSC Campus

Busier than the average collegian at NWMSC are two nuns, Sister M. Constantia Shmitz and Sister M. Mauritta Johnston, from Mount Alverno Convent, east of Maryville.

Students and Teachers

The reason for the rushed schedule is that they not only attend classes twice a week, but they also teach daily classes and supervise boarders at the Mount Alverno Girls Academy.

Enrolled in Eng. 199, the two report that this fall is their first enrollment on the local campus.

Sister Constantia has a BA degree with a major in English from Mount St. Scholastic College, Atchison, Kansas. She is a former resident of Parnell, Mo.

Previous College Work

An Oklahoma native, Sister Mauritta has a BS degree from Benedictine Heights College, Tulsa, Okla., and has done graduate work at St. Louis University. She will be awarded her masters in education there next summer.

The college-going sisters, who must keep a rigid schedule in coming to campus for class and hurrying back to the Mount to teach, are made to feel "right at home" while on campus, they report, by the extreme friendliness of students and teachers.

Phi Mu Pledges Host Sororities

Members of the Phi Mu pledge class were hostesses at a party for the pledges of the Greek sororities on October 17, in the Union Lounge.

The entertainment started when the entire group sang "Getting to Know You." A skit, "The Panhellic Tea" as given by Kay Pheiffer, Shirley Bell, Janet Gabbert, Ann Simpson, and Karen Neilson.

An impromptu skit on freshmen entering Perrin Hall was given by Judy Hullman, Lou Ann Jones, Sharon Gridley, Carolyn Wilshire, and Marlys Updegraff.

Refreshments of cokes, potato chips, and dip were served to the girls and their sponsors.

4-H to Vote, Nov. 16

The 4-H club will meet in the Gold Room of the J. W. Jones Union Building Nov. 6, at 6:30 p.m. Formal initiation of new members and election of a parliamentarian will be the order of business for the evening.

"Repeat' Ruling To Change in '61

NWMSC is up-grading its standards! In the past it was possible to re-take a course and receive the highest grade made in that course.

However, in the fall of 1962 this will be changed. The student will be assessed the total number of attempted hours.

Dean Foster stated that this system is fairer to the student, but it would be to the student's advantage, that if he fails a course, to re-take it immediately.

DZ's Initiate New Chapter at 'Jewel'

The initiating officers of the campus Delta Zeta chapter traveled to William Jewell College, Oct. 21-22 to install a new chapter of Delta Zeta.

College members from many other chapters and alumnae were present at the ceremonies. The program for the weekend included the initiation ceremony, a formal banquet and a presentation tea on Sunday. Entertainment was furnished by Epsilon Rho members at both the banquet and tea. Kathie Kinnick sang, accompanied by Elaine Cummings. A quartet from the local chapter also performed.

The initiating officers taking part in the installation were: Karen Mast, Martha Whitehead, Dixie Gomel, Karen Porter, Myrna Newman, Kay Anderson, Pat Harris and Monica Parks.

Book Review

Tim Johnson

SATURDAY NIGHT AND SUNDAY MORNING by Alan Sillitoe—Signet $.50—1958

This novel is a success because it achieves a believable resolution. It is the robust story of a factory worker who dislikes his job (in Britain where not all can attend college), and endures each week for his Saturday night fling—booze and another man's wife.

He says, "It's a great life if you don't weaken," and he is out to get what he can from it. But he does realize that his irresponsible living cannot last forever. Thus, when two army buddies of the husband beat him he accepts it as the end of Saturday Night—his fling, and begins to accept the obligations of Sunday Morning.

At the close of the novel he is planning to marry a girl he met at the close of Saturday Night, Doreen, even though she embodies much of the middle-class way of life which he resents. But Arthur is not submitting—in a concluding monologue he says, "Well, it's a good life and a good world, all said and done, if you don't weaken, and if you know that the big wide world hasn't heard from you yet, not by a long way, though it won't be long now."

AAUP Holds Meet

An AAUP meeting held on Thursday, October 26, in the Upper Lakeview room of the Union.

Dr. Leon Miller, Dean of Administration, spoke on "Practices in Determining Quality Factors in Teacher Performances." Mr. Earl Bragdon was in charge of the program.

Ag Club Holds Hayride

The Ag Club held a hayride and dance Friday, October 20, with the Colhecon as guests. These activities took the place of the barnwarming of the past. The sponsor for the Ag Club is F. B. Houghton and the sponsor of Colhecon is Thelma Long.

Mrs. Dunn Named To College Staff

Mrs. Martha Dunn has been appointed to a teaching position in English and speech at NWMS, according to President Jones.

Mrs. Dunn replaces James Siefkas who has been called to active duty in the armed forces.

A graduate of Bob Jones University, Greenville, S. C., Mrs. Dunn has taken graduate work at Boston University. She is the wife of Fred Dunn, photographer at Amos Studio, and the mother of two children.

Tri Sig's Select Pledge Officers

They are as follows: President, Christian Johnston; Vice-President, Judy Hullman; Secretary, Marsha McElwain; Treasurer, Ina Clair Makings; and Song Leader, Jo Ellen Elam.

Five Seniors Star on 'Cat Squad

Al Kearns, End
Ht. 6' 2", Wt. 190

Al is this year's leading pass-receiver. He has lettered two years in football. Majoring in Business and minoring in Economics, Al hails from Tabor, Iowa, and hopes to go into the business field after graduation.

Mickey Howard, Back
Ht. 5'9", Wt. 180

Mick is a two year letterman from Plattsburg, Missouri. His major is Physical Education, and his minor is Industrial Arts. This twenty-two year-old senior is married and wants to coach after graduation. A late-season injury probably will sideline him for the remainder of the football year.

Stuart Cline, Back,
Ht. 6'1", Wt. 189

"Stu" has been one of the leading Bearcat rushers this season. He has lettered twice at NWMSC. Majoring in PE and minoring in English, Stu is twenty-two and is from Savannah, Missouri.

Larry Elder, Center
Ht. 6'0", Wt. 235

This twenty-three year old Senior is majoring in PE, and minoring in Biology, and has won one letter previously. Larry wishes to coach or teach after graduation. His hometown is Wathena, Kansas.

Dick Clark, Guard
Ht. 6'0", Wt. 205

Dick holds the position of Team-Captain this season. Last year he was named to the MIAA second all-star squad. With a PE major and a Social Science minor, "Clarkie," who has lettered here one season, hopes to coach or teach after graduation. Dick is married and has one child, and calls Maquoketa, Iowa, his home.

Bearcats Fall, 28-0

Unable to penetrate within the Cape Girardeau 20-yard line, the Northwest State College Bearcats were shutout by the Indians, 28-0, Saturday night in an MIAA Conference game.

It was the Bearcats' third straight loop loss against no wins, while Cape is now 2-1 in league play. Northwest State has a 2-5 overall slate and the Indians are 4-3.

All of Cape's scoring was packed into two quarters, the second and fourth.

A freshman playing his first game, Wayne Stevens, broke the ice in the second period when he romped 30 yards for the first TD. Cape built its margin at 14-0 at halftime when Paul Ziebol added a seven-yard touchdown run.

Fullback Bill Stocklos scored the last two touchdowns in the final period to end the Cape scoring.

He snagged a 19-yard pass from Quarterback Jim Collins and later punched over from five yards out to end an 81-yard sustained drive by the Indians.

With two-thirds of the grid season past, the Bearcats stood with a two-won and four-lost record. A late season rally would allow them to finish even with the board, or one win over the .500 mark. This year's squad, although being blessed with numerous lettermen, has been plagued by injuries from the season's beginning.

Costly Loss

The loss of fullback Jack Boyd definitely hindered the 'Cats sometimes spectacular, sometimes sputtering, offense. Stu Cline, Don Daniels, and Prime Williams have shown touches of offensive brilliance on occasions. Guard Dick Clark has displayed the defensive ability that made him an all-league selection last season.

The inability of the 'Cats to maintain a sustained offensive drive in the clutch has been a major factor throughout the season thus far.

Defensive Lapse

But overshadowing these factors is the principal drawback to a successful season: the collapse of the 'Cat defense. According to MIAA statistics, the NWMSC footballers were last in defensive standings, their opponents having scored more than three times the amount of tallies that the Maryville gridders could muster.

Rushing Star

As of October 25, 1961, Prime Williams was the third leading rusher in the MIAA, averaging 5.76 yards per carry. Al Kearns had caught ten passes for the fifth slot in that league category. Harold Gentry was the third leading punter in the conference, booting the pigskin for 33.8 yards per try.

According to our figures Springfield Bears have won two, lost three, and tied one. At this point, our Bearcats had emerged the victor in two contests and came out on the losing end four times. If statistics are correct, this would give the Bears a slight edge, but the spirit of Homecoming usually evens the odds; so we're picking the Bearcats over Springfield!

The Bearcat B-Ball squad has four team members from Illinois. They are: Jerry Meznarich, Don Drake, Hal German, and George Moore.
